TSESG London – 20 October 2025

Dovestone Media is delighted to host the 4th annual edition of The Summit for ESG London returning to the city in October 2025.

TSESG is the definitive event series for leading asset managers, private equity firms, banks, institutions, and investors, providing a much-needed platform to unpack the risks and opportunities in sustainable investing. The event will dive into investment market trends, international regulatory updates, ESG branding challenges, and strategies to navigate end-to-end operations in the context of corporate responsibility and commercial pressure.

Every year, the agenda is curated in collaboration with the leading executives and top technology and solutions providers to address the most pressing challenges in an ever-evolving industry.

The one day summit offers multiple streams of content, featuring thought-led presentations, interactive panel discussions and fireside chats, as well as scheduled one-to-one meetings, all topped off with a lively networking drinks reception.

Join us at TSESG London for another must-attend conference experience in 2025.

TSESG addresses all the key industry talking points including:

- Impact Investing & Transition Strategy
- ESG Data & Technology
- Global Macro Trends and Private Markets
- US, European, and International Risk & Regulation
- Sustainable Brand and Distribution Strategy
